

I am opposed to the consolidation of media ownership. In fact, the current review should further distribute and already too concentrated ownership. This consolidation is an affront to the constitution and a deliberate attempt at promoting this administrations programs and silencing any opposing views.